TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- IPC Members Duties
 - To promote the conference and the call for papers within your network and scientific community
 - To propose one or more tracks or special sessions on a topic of interest. Visit the ISM 2020 website to know more about tracks and special sessions.
 - To complete the assigned reviews
 - To participate at the conference and chair one or more sessions

Please consider that if none of these commitments is completed, you will not be listed as IPC Member in the final acknowledgements in the conference program.

- ISM IPC Member Benefits: ISM IPC Members are strongly encouraged to invite papers. If at least 10 of these invited papers are accepted for inclusion in the conference proceedings, the IPC member has a free registration to the conference. If you intend to qualify for the free registration, please provide the full list of articles (titles and authors) that you contributed to collect to antonio.padovano@unical.it by April 31st, 2020.
- Data will be collected for this specific purpose, with reference to ISM 2020 and future editions and not processed further in ways incompatible with the purposes reported in this agreement.
